✓ My presentation was scheduled on 29th of September in the section of the Telecommunication and Networking. Interest to my work was mostly coming scientists from Institute of Informatics and Automation Problems of National Academy of Science of Republic of Armenia, because my work was covering latest R D work in the computer networking, I was asked several questions about Pyramid Broadcasting and GPON networks and I think my answers were enough satisfactory. Chairman of our section have even mentioned my work among interesting ones. I listened several interesting presentations made by participants from Germany, Holland, Russia, Italy etc. the atmosphere was very warm and friendly, so it was easy to communicate with the participants. So for this reason I'm highly satisfied for my participation in this conference moreover when my article with co-author professor I-Shyan Hwang is already published in the proceeding of CSIT'2011 international conference.
