

Regulations for Students with Excellent Academic Performance and Skills Award

College of Informatics, Yuan Ze University

December 2, 2021 Amended by the 2nd College Affairs Meeting, Academic Year 2021-22
April 27, 2022 Approved by the 3rd university affair meeting of academic year 2021-22

Article 1 Purpose: The Regulations for Students with Excellent Academic Performance and Skills Award was formulated in order to recognize students' excellent performance in academic studies and related fields during their study at the College of Informatics (hereafter referred to as the College).

Article 2 Eligibility: Awardees must meet the following requirements:

- (1) The Gold Academic Medal: This award is given to undergraduate or master's degree students who have won the top three in any international competition or the best in a national competition. The award is also offered to students whose academic papers have been accepted by any A level academic journals ranked by the College. Each paper can only apply once for any award from the College.
- (2) The Silver Academic Medal: The award is given to undergraduate or master's degree students whose academic papers have been accepted by any B level academic journals ranked by the College. Each paper can only apply once for any award from the College.
- (3) The Academic Achievement Award: The award is given to students who have won two silver academic medals or one gold academic medal. The awardees must meet the qualification for applying for another gold academic medal.
- (4) The Gold Medal for Professional Skills: This award is given to students who have passed a national examination (or equivalent examination) and are recognized by the College as qualified as a Class A technician. Students who have excellent scores in language proficiency tests could also apply for the award (in accordance with the Reward Details for Students at Yuan Ze University).
- (5) The Silver Medal for Professional Skills: This award is given to students who have passed a national examination (or equivalent examination) and are recognized by the College as qualified as a Class B technician. Students who have excellent scores in language proficiency tests could also apply for the award (in accordance with the Reward Details for Students at Yuan Ze University).
- (6) The Achievement Award for Professional Skills: The award is given to students who have won two silver medals or one gold medal in this category. The awardees must meet the qualification for applying for another gold academic medal.

Article 3 Application Procedures: Qualified applicants can apply by themselves or be recommended by their department. Documents to be submitted include the study or research results, a copy of the published paper, a certificate of winning competition, or data about the prize. The applicants must provide these documents for obtaining the recommendation from the department. Applications will be reviewed by the College. The list of awardees will be announced after the Student Affair Instructing Committee meeting ratify the result.

Article 4 For matters not listed here, please refer to the Reward Details for Students at Yuan Ze University.

Article 5 This Regulations was approved at the Meeting of Administrative Executives in the College and Student Affair Instructing Committee of Yuan Ze University before implementation. All amendments shall follow the same procedures.