

Yuan Ze University Regulations on Competitiveness Enhancement Project Award

Apr 13, 2022: Adopted at the 19th Administrative Council
Meeting, Academic Year 2021

Jun 8, 2022: Revised and Adopted at the 24th Administrative Council Meeting, Academic Year 2021

Article 1 These regulations are specifically formulated to encourage academic research capabilities, promote academic exchange, and elevate academic competitiveness

Article 2 Faculty members, including 'Honorary Chairs,' 'Honorary Professors,' retired professors, adjunct professors, and research professors, who publish full-length academic papers or works bearing the signature 'Yuan Ze University' (in English) in internationally recognized professional journals, are eligible to apply in accordance with these regulations.

Article 3 The award rules are set forth as follows:

1. Research paper must be published in academic journals indexed in SCIE, SSCI, and A&HCI.
2. SCIE/SSCI Journal Papers: According to the latest Journal Citation Reports (JCR) data within the past year, papers ranked in the top 50% (inclusive) based on Impact Factor will receive a grant of 20,000 NT dollars per paper, while those in the lower 50% will receive a grant of 10,000 NT dollars per paper.
3. A&HCI Journal Papers: A grant of 20,000 NT dollars will be awarded for each paper.
4. Each paper is limited to one author applying for the grant. If a paper has co-authors who are full-time (including adjunct) faculty members of the university, it will be considered for the university's full-time faculty incentive program, and duplicate applications will not be accepted.

Article 4 The budget will be allocated separately by the Research and Development Office as a dedicated project. The allocated amount will be executed upon approval by the relevant committee after review.

Article 5 These regulations, as well as all subsequent revisions therewith, shall be duly adopted by the Administrative Council prior to implementation.
