

Yuan Ze University

Regulations of Scholarships

for Mainland Chinese Master's and Doctoral Students

(The amended regulations shall be applicable starting from incoming students enrolled in the 1st semester of 2025)

May 14, 2012 Approved at the 14th Executive Council Meeting of the 2011 Academic Year

Apr. 27, 2015 Amended at the 17th Executive Council Meeting of the 2014 Academic Year

Mar. 29, 2017 Amended at the 16th Executive Council Meeting of the 2016 Academic Year

Jun. 25, 2025 Amended at the 19th Executive Council Meeting of the 2024 Academic Year

Article 1 Purpose

The Regulations are established to encourage excellent students from Mainland Chinese to pursue Master's and Doctoral studies at Yuan Ze University.

Article 2 Subjects Eligible to Apply

The Mainland Chinese students referred to in the Regulations are defined according to the University's "Regulations Regarding Mainland Chinese Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan."

Article 3 Scholarship quotas and amounts are subject to flexible adjustment based on the budget for each academic year.

Article 4 Qualifications and Rewards

I. Scholarship

- 1) 100% reimbursement of tuition, miscellaneous, and credit fees, excluding computer and internet usage fees, sports facility maintenance, accommodation, insurance, and other fees collected on behalf of third parties.
- 2) 50% reimbursement of tuition, miscellaneous, and credit fees, excluding computer and internet usage fees, sports facility maintenance, accommodation, insurance, and other fees collected on behalf of third parties.
- 3) Stipend.

II. Application Requirements

- 1) Incoming new students: Individual applicants who have completed the registration process in the first semester may be granted scholarships as set out in one of the first three Items, or including Item 4 of Paragraph 1 of this Article.
- 2) Present students:
  1. Students in a Master's program who have completed one semester of study, have taken at least 6 credits in each semester, have a conduct grade of 80 or higher, had an average academic grade of 80 or higher in the previous semester, and:
    - (1) who ranks in the top 25 percent of the department or unit of the same level may be awarded scholarships as described in Item 1, or including Item 3 of Paragraph 1 of this Article;
    - (2) who ranks in the top 50 percent of the department or unit of the same level may be awarded scholarships as described in Item 2, or including Item 3 of Paragraph 1 of this Article;
  2. Students in a PhD program who have completed one semester of study, have taken at least 6 credits in each semester, have a conduct grade of 80 or higher, had an average academic grade of 80 or higher may be awarded scholarships as described in Item 1, or including Item 3 of Paragraph 1 of this Article.
  3. Students in the Master's and PhD programs must be recommended by their advisor, and those who do not meet the six-credit requirement during the dissertation writing period may apply with a recommendation letter from their advisor and a dissertation writing plan.
  4. Those who do not meet the above criteria may apply on the recommendation of the department.
- 3) Eligibility review of stipend for current PhD students:
  1. The basic threshold for qualification review for second-year PhD candidates advancing to third-year PhD is 4 points for paper publication. The review standard may be increased by colleges based on the nature of the field.
  2. The basic threshold for qualification review for third-year PhD candidates advancing to fourth-year PhD must accumulate 8 points for paper publication. The 4 newly added points should come from high-impact factor journals where the PhD student is the first author except their advisor. The review standard may be increased by colleges based on the nature of the field.
  3. Point Calculation Principles
    - (1) Each publication in SCI, SSCI, A&HCI, TSSCI, or THCI Level I and II journals will receive 4 points.
    - (2) Each Scopus journal or conference paper will receive 2 points.

III. Application Procedure:

- 1) Incoming new students: Scholarship applications must be submitted at the same time as admission applications. All scholarship applications will be reviewed by each department or program, and the Global Affairs Office has the final approval authority.
- 2) Present students: Applications must be submitted according to the schedule announced each semester. Scholarship recipients and scholarship content will be approved by the Global Affairs Office based on academic performance and departmental recommendations.

IV. Maximum Duration of Scholarship

- 1) Scholarship is available for up to 8 semesters for undergraduate students (through the fourth year), up to 4 semesters for students in a Master's program (through the second year) and up to 8 semesters for students in a PhD program (through the fourth year).
- 2) Scholarships will be revoked immediately if a scholarship recipient graduates, suspends, or withdraws from the University, or is disqualified by the University.

Article 5 Upon enrollment at the University, recipients are not allowed to study in any other country as exchange or dual/joint degree students. Should such a case occur, the recipient's scholarships will be suspended. Recipients on exchange as part of the degree program are exempt from this rule.

Article 6 Any student who has been found to apply for this scholarship by using a forged instrument or false facts will be immediately disqualified from receiving this scholarship. All the scholarship paid to him/her previously shall be reimbursed to the University.

Article 7 Mainland Chinese students enrolled at Yuan Ze are required to abide by the University's regulations. Scholarship qualifications may be revoked at any time if a violation is reported by the department (program, school, college) and approved by the Global Affairs Office.

Article 8 These Regulations herein will come into effect after approval by the Executive Council Meeting and the students enrolled for next semester shall apply. Amendments to the Regulations shall follow the same procedure.

In the event of discrepancies between the English and Chinese versions, the Chinese version shall prevail.