

YZU 115-1 Incentive Scholarships and Grants for Outstanding Students with Financial Need or Tariff Related Hardship

Let your efforts be seen, and let your dreams keep moving forward!

Application period

September 30 – October 20, 2026 Online Application

Eligibility

Undergraduate (Year 1-4), Master's (Year 1-2), and PhD (Year 1-4) (excluding in-service programs), conduct grade of 80 or above and have not been subject to disciplinary action, and who meet one of the following criteria. Applicants under criteria 1 must be nationals of the Republic of China (Taiwan).

- 1 Students holding a low-income or middle-to-low-income household certificate issued by a municipal or county government in Taiwan.
- 2 Family continuously affected by U.S. tariff impact during the 2026 academic year, resulting in economic hardship (e.g., involuntary reduced work hours, unpaid leave, layoffs, significant salary reduction, business closure, or cancelled orders).

Required Documents

- Transcript of records for all semester(Required)(Exempt for newly admitted students)
- Certificates of diverse achievements, public service records, or professional licenses. (Extra Points)
- Low-income/Mid-low income certificate (Required for eligibility criteria 1)
- Proof income change for the primary breadwinner:Salary reduction/unpaid leave/layoff notices, payslips, withholding statements, company business impact records, or Certification from your Advisor. (Required for eligibility criteria 2)

Amount

Category 1 : NT$3,000 to $7,000 per month for 5 months (Newly admitted for 4 months)

Category 2: NT$50,000 lump sum or NT$3,000 to $5,000 per month for 5 months (Newly admitted for 4 months)

Notes

- Students who have already received scholarships of the same nature from other government agencies shall not receive these scholarships concurrently. If any duplicate claims are discovered, payments shall be terminated in accordance with regulations, and any scholarships received during the academic year shall be recovered.
- During the period of disbursement, if a recipient graduates (calculated through June), takes a leave of absence, withdraws, transfers to another institution, or is subject to disciplinary action, disbursement of the scholarship or grant shall cease starting from the month following the occurrence of such event.
- Any unaddressed matters shall be handled in accordance with the relevant regulations of the Ministry of Education and the University.