

Yuan Ze University Regulations Governing the Establishment of Student Counseling Committee

Approved at the 7th Administrative Council of 2016 academic year on 2016.11.02
Approved at the 22th Administrative Council of 2020 academic year on 2021.06.23

Article 1 The University has established the “Yuan Ze University Student Counseling Committee” (hereinafter referred to as the Committee) to promote the psychological health and career development of students, establish a friendly, caring and diverse campus environment, implement development, intervening and treatment 3-level counseling mechanism in order to improve the counseling work performance of the university.

Article 2 The Committee comprises 11 members. The university president serves as the chairperson. The dean of student affairs, the director of military education office, and the chief of the counseling and career development section serve as the ex officio members. The remaining committee members should include one instructor representative recommended by each college, and two student representatives, who may be re-elected. The term of office runs one year. At least one-third of the total committee members should be of any gender. There is one executive secretary to the Committee, served by the chief of the counseling and career development section, who is responsible for the execution of various administrative affairs.

Article 3 The responsibilities of the Committee are described below:

1. Reviewing counseling work plan and outcome.
2. Integrate relevant resources both from within and outside the school, and promoting students counseling work.
3. Other student counseling work related promotional matters.

Article 4 The Committee shall convene one meeting per academic year and shall convene temporary meeting when necessary.

Article 5 The Regulations shall be enacted with the adoption at the Administrative Council. The same procedures shall apply to amendment.