

Since the installation of air conditioners in the graduate student dormitory is a huge project, it will not be completed in the Fall semester of academic year 2016. Please be aware of the fact that the accommodation fees remain the same. Please ignore the previous mail. We apologize for any inconvenience it may cause and appreciate your understanding.

Student Housing Service Section of the Office of Students
Affairs